One reason Tom loves his teaching career :

Being a teacher allows me to incorporate nearly all of my hobbies into my job. I enjoy woodworking, so I build bookcases and furniture for my classroom and my coworkers' classrooms. I like to fish, so I take my students fishing. I like videography, so I create highlight videos of each school year. I like nature, so I take kids on nature–oriented field trips and teach about stewardship. I like to tinker with electronics, so I use 3D printers in my class. I like creatures, so I have plenty of class pets. I love America, so I teach students to love America too!
